

User flow — from a recorded playtest to an unlisted YouTube video

Steps 1–4 are entirely local. Google is involved only at step 5 (consent, first run) and step 7 (the single API call) — and step 7 happens only after the user has reviewed exactly what will be sent. One video per upload, always started by a button press.

